Project Management Graduate Certificate Program

Semester 1

Digital Leadership

Innovative decision-making in an evolving digital workplace, leverage data and technology to lead and sustain change.

Project Management Systems

Project life-cycle, organizational structures, project charters, project scope statements, work breakdown structures; planning and control methods introduced such as PERT/CPM, Gantt charts, earned value systems and project management information system software

Semester 2

Program Management

Plan, strategize, manage program benefits, engage with stakeholders and create appropriate governance controls.

Project Cost and Schedule Control

Schedule estimation, budgeting; resource allocation and leveling; schedule analysis techniques; use of earned valuee management systems and project change control; project metrics.

Semester 3

Communication for a Diverse Workplace

Risk management planning, risk identification, risk analysis, planning and implementation of risk responses and risk monitoring.

Managing IT Projects

Fundamental project management concepts, with a focus on agile methodologies. Students complete various project management documents related to managing IT projects.

✓ Develop the knowledge and skills of project management.

✓ Project Management institute accredited.

✓ Fully stackable into MBA or Master's in Project Management*

✓ Eligible employees can effectively manage their progress through a 12-month journey by taking only one course per session and maintaining continuous enrollment.

*At the time of application to the next credential level, an evaluation of qualifying transfer credit will occur, and the most beneficial outcome will be applied.

Ready to get started on your higher education journey?
Learn More | Give us a call: 866.338.7991